The European Solidarity Centre is a cultural institution created in 2007. Its long-term goals are: commemorating, preserving and popularising the heritage and idea of Solidarity, and anti-communist democratic opposition in Poland and other countries; inspiring new initiatives based on universal cultural, civil, union, local government, national and European ideals; sharing the achievements of the peaceful struggle for freedom, justice, democracy and human rights with those who are deprived of them, and to participate actively in the construction of a European identity, and a new international order. The European Solidarity Centre Founding Act was signed by 29 signatories, including 22 European prime ministers and presidents, in Gdańsk in 2005, on the 25th Anniversary of the Gdańsk Agreement.
